- Handling camp programs for the students.

Being a language enthusiast, I take linguistics at Gadjah Mada University as my master degree. I am interested in linguistic landscape issues to be my research area. Meanwhile, I am also a teacher in English grammar and structure. I have been teaching English for almost 3 years in Kampung Inggris LC Pare. Apart from being there, I also like to learn social issues on gender equality, peace education, and character building. Thus, I frequently join some social communities engaged those issues.
